

Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies

An institution for the advanced study of Islam and the Muslim world

VISITING FELLOWSHIPS AND VISITING RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS

2023-2024 ROUND 2

The Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies promotes excellence in the study of Islam and Muslim societies. Applications are invited for non-stipendiary Visiting Fellowships and Visiting Research Fellowships tenable at the Centre for the academic year commencing October 2023.

Non-stipendiary Visiting Fellowships and Visiting Research Fellowships are primarily intended for scholars who wish to spend up to one academic year at the Centre. Applicants should normally be at post-doctoral or equivalent level by the time they join the Centre. Well-established academics who wish to spend their sabbatical leave at the Centre are welcome to apply. The research undertaken during residence should be in an area relevant to the study of Islam or the Muslim world.

Visiting Fellows and Visiting Research Fellows are members of the Common Room and are provided with desk space, access to library facilities, and meals at the Common Table when served. They are self-funded and pay a fee of £1,500 per Term. The Centre can advise on renting residential accommodation.
